

Job Tips for 50+ Workers

www.aarp.org/jobtips

Websites for Mature Workers

Employment Websites

RetirementJobs.com

Career advice, e-newsletter, podcasts; “age-friendly” certification for employers.

www.retirementjobs.com

Jobs 4.0

For job seekers 40 and over

www.jobs4point0.com

Workforce50.com

For job seekers 50 and over; formerly called Senior Job Bank.

www.workforce50.com

WiserWorker.com

For job seekers over 40. Sponsored by the Employment Guide.

www.wiserworker.com

Retired Brains

Older boomers, seniors, and retirees

www.retiredbrains.com

Seniors4Hire

For job seekers 50 and over

seniors4hire.org/

RetireeWorkforce.com

Retirees and mature workers

www.retireeworkforce.com

Other Websites

These sites do not target a specific age group, but offer useful information for 50+ workers and career changers.

CareerJournal.com

Wall Street Journal career site. Job postings, virtual job fairs, job hunting tips.

www.careerjournal.com

Job-Hunt.org

Links to a wide range of employment websites and career resources.

www.job-hunt.org

Monster - Careers at 50+

From main website, Click Career Advice, scroll down to View Information by Category.
www.monster.com

MyPartTimePRO.com

Specializes in flexible and part-time opportunities for professionals.
www.myparttimepro.com

Quintessential Careers

Comprehensive site for job search and advice. Use search page for articles geared to 50+.
<http://www.quintcareers.com/>

The Riley Guide

Career advice plus links to thousands of websites which offer job postings and resources.
www.rileyguide.com

Weddle's

Internet resources on job hunting and career management. Online bookstore and e-newsletter.
www.weddles.com

Networks and Organizations

Execu-Net

For executive jobs in the $100K employment market. Requires paid membership (30-day, 180-day, and 360-day options).
<http://www.execunet.com>

40Plus

Volunteer organization supported by member fees. Offers training course, counseling, resume development, and peer support. FortyPlus chapters operate in six states as independent organizations. The Washington, D.C. website has links to other chapters:
<http://www.40plus-dc.org/>

The Five O'Clock Club

Offers a 5-volume set of job search books and presentations by professional career counselors. Members attend weekly meetings in person or by teleconference. Membership fees are based on number of sessions attended. Website has some free content.
www.fiveoclockclub.com

These resources are provided as a public service. Their inclusion does not imply an endorsement by AARP of organizations on this list or the content on their sites.