

▼ RAMPANT RABBITS

Each rabbit represents a pair (a male and a female) and each pair bears a pair of young two months after their birth, and bears another pair of young every month after that. How many are produced in a single year? Note: The original pair were born in the previous December.

