

Practical Solutions for Aging in Place: State Policies and Practices That Work

An AARP Solutions Forum in collaboration with the National Conference of State Legislators

December 8, 2011
AARP Brickfield Conference Center
601 E. St. NW, Washington, DC 20049

Welcome

Enid Kassner, Director, Independent Living/Long-Term Services and Supports, AARP Public Policy Institute

The AARP Livable Communities Agenda

Jana Lynott, Senior Strategic Policy Advisor, AARP Public Policy Institute

Findings from “Aging in Place: A State Survey of Livability Policies and Practices”

Doug Shinkle, Policy Specialist—Environment, Energy & Transportation, National Conference of State Legislators

Panel Discussion

Dr. Rodney Harrell, Senior Strategic Policy Advisor, AARP Public Policy Institute (moderator)

Minnesota State Senator Scott Dibble

Utah State Representative Bradley Last

Don Chartock, Rural & Coordinated Transportation Administrator, Washington State Department of Transportation

Kathryn Lawler, External Affairs Manager, Atlanta Regional Commission

Q&A Session & Wrap Up